PETERSBURG, February 11.

ORDERS have been issued for raising 40,000 Recruits, which will cost 3,500,000 Rubles. The Court has likewise order'd the Magazines on the Frontiers of Finland, to be fill'd, and all the necessary Dispositions are making to put ourselves in a good Posture of Defence on that Side.

We hear from Turky, that the Embassador whom Schach Nadir sends to the Grand Signor is still at Aleppo, and Nobody knows when he will proceed on his Journey to Constantinople; and that the Schach is assembling a great Army, and filling all the Magazines on the Frontiers of the Ottoman Empire.

Madrid, Feb. 21. According to the Account which the Count de Glimes, Captain General in Catalonia, has sent to Court of all the Provisions and Warlike Stores actually at Barcelona, and other neighbouring Ports, it appears that there is enough to undertake several Sieges. A great Number of Tents are making in this City, and are to be sent forthwith to Barcelona.

Since we receiv'd the News of Count Montijo's Arrival at Paris, the Court has sent several Couriers to him with Dispatches relating to his Instructions in Quality of Embassador from the King at the Dyet at Francfort. This Embassador is order'd to assert his Majesty's Right to the late Emperor's Succession; to protest against every thing that may be situated or settled in Prejudice of the said Right; to make good, in particular, his Majesty's Claim to give his Vote in the Dyet for the Kingdom of Bohemia; and to propose proper Methods for satisfying the King in Regard to his Pretensions. It is nevertheless thought, considering the good Understanding between this Court and that of Dresden, that his Majesty will let the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, enjoy the Right he pretends to in Regard to the Vote of Bohemia. It is also very probable that if the Count de Montijo has Orders to support any one of the Princes who aspire to the Imperial Dignity, it will be his Polish Majesty, unless some unforeseen Event or an Accommodation should reunite the Votes in Favour of another Candidate.

Berlin, Feb. 21. Last Saturday the King receiv'd an Express, with Advice that Major General de la Morte, at the Head of a Detachment of his Majesty's Troops, has made himself Master of the Town and Fortress of Jablunckа; the Garrison obtain'd an honourable Capitulation. That Place is the Key of Silesia, on the Side of Hungary.

This Morning we received advice that a body of 1500 Austrian Troops had attack'd the Borough Fridec near Troppau, in which there is a Garrison of 300 Men, commanded by Major Manchow; but the Austrians were repulsed with the Loss of 60 Men killed on the Spot, besides a great many wounded.

Venice, Feb. 25. Our Letters from Albania and Dalmatia still assure us, that the Turks are making great Preparations for War, not only on the Frontiers of those Provinces, but also in several Parts of their Dominions in Europe; all which gives some Uneasiness to the Republick. We wait impatiently for Letters from our Embassador at that Porte, because the last Advices from thence informed us that the Turkish Empire seem'd to be at the Eve of a great Revolution.

We hear that the Court of Spain has made large Remittances to Italy; and they write from Naples, that the Troops design'd for Tuscany would certainly begin their March towards the End of this Month.

LONDON, March 3.

Letters from Berlin, of the 4th of March, N. S. say, that the King of Prussia had call'd a Grand Council of War at Schweidnitz, wherein it was resolv'd to begin the Operations of the Campaign with the Siege of Great Glogau, which Place is in such want of Provisions and Ammunition, and the Garrison so weak, that it is impossible for Count Wallis to hold out any considerable Time.

Extract of a Letter from Paris.

March 6. 'Count de Montijo, who is going Ambassador 'from Spain to the Diet of Election at Francfort, has, since 'his Arrival here, had several Conferences with Cardinal de 'Fleury, upon the Pretensions of his Catholick Majesty to 'the Succession of the late Emperor in Italy, and also upon 'the Means he proposes to put in Practice in order to make 'himself Master of it, as he did of the Kingdom of Naples 'and Sicily: But this Ambassador finds his Eminence firm 'in his Resolution of maintaining the Pragmatick Sanction; 'he disapproves of the turbulent and ambitious Views of the 'Queen of Spain, and steadily refuses the Spanish Troops a 'Passage through France. His Eminence is likewise assur'd, 'that the King of Sardinia will not grant them that Liberty 'through his Dominions, the Frontier Places of which are 'in a very good Condition. Count de Montijo has since 'been in Conference with the Count de Bellisle, wherein he 'has acquainted him with the Motives of his going to the 'Electoral Diet, which, it's well known, are in order, let 'it cost whatever it will, to traverse the Election of the 'Grand Duke of Tuscany, and to use his utmost Efforts 'for the Elector of Saxony, King of Poland; nevertheless 'with this Reserve, that in Case the Queen of Hungary will 'consent to yield up Parma, Placentia and Tuscany to the 'Infant Don Philip, his Royal Highness may be assur'd, 'that his Most Christian Majesty, in Concert with the King 'of Spain, will cause him to obtain the Imperial Crown; 'But if her Majesty of Hungary refuses to comply with this 'Proposal, the Ambassador from Spain is order'd to remove 'even Heaven and Earth in Favour of the King of Poland.

Letters

Letters from the Hague, dated the 10th of March, adviſe, that the States General puſh the Affair of the ſecond Augmentation with all the Vigour imaginable. Their High Mightineſſes having wrote to the two Provinces which had not yet agreed thereto, had receiv'd the Conſent of Groningen, and it was hoped that of Frieſland would be ſent ſome time the ſame Week; immediately after the Receipt of which, it's aſſured that the Reſolution would paſs, and before the Month of May the 10000 Men would by levy'd: For if, at the firſt Augmentation, inſtead of 11000 Men it had been for 20000, they would have been long ago completed, with ſo much Facility were theſe Levies made. They are all well made ſtout Fellows, and moſtly Natives of the Provinces. The Germans from the Frontiers too offer themſelves in Droves, knowing that they cannot enter into a more advantageous Service.

An Extract of a Letter from a foreign Miniſter at Paris, to his Correſpondent at Amſterdam.

March 7. 'M. Orry, Comptroller-General of the Finances, 'has laid before the Council a Memorial of the State of the 'Finances, which, though intended to be kept ſecret, has 'nevertheleſs come to my Knowledge. M. Orry therein 'repreſents, that it's neceſſary ſpeedily to find out ſome 'Means of being capable of continuing the ordinary Ex'pences of the State, without which it will be impoſſible to 'ſupport them. He therein adds, that ſince the Year 1738, 'the Expences of the Court, comprehending therein the 'Marriage of Madam, have amounted to eighteen Millions 'of Livres more than uſual: That an Increaſe likewiſe of 'twelve Millions per Annum have been made in ſecret Ex'pences of the State: That the Armament of Breſt and 'Toulon hath coſt more than ten Millions: That the late 'Scarcity has occaſion'd an extraordinary Charge of more 'than fourteen Millions, in purchaſing Corn, and other 'Proviſions; and that the Damage cauſed to the publick 'Works by the Inundations, amount to more than twenty 'Millions. The whole makes three Millions Seven Hun'dred Pounds Sterling.

'There is another Thing which ſeems very much to per'plex the Court of France, and that is, the Alliance that is 'ſaid to be upon the Carpet between Great-Britain, Ruſſia, 'Sweden, Poland, Pruſſia, Denmark, and ſeveral other Pro'teſtant Princes of Germany, in order to maintain the Peace 'and Tranquility of the Empire. An Armiſtice is much 'talk'd of here between Great-Britain and Spain, which, 'we are told, is negociating by thoſe two Courts, without 'the Mediaiion of any other Power.

March 9. Extract of a Letter from Nuremberg, dated March 8. N. S.

'According to poſitive Advices from Sileſia and Mora'via, General Brown's Quarters are ſtill fix'd at Sternberg, 'between Brun and Olmurz: The Body of Troops under 'his Command is already encreaſed to 8000 Men. They 'write from Glatz, that a Party of Auſtrian Huſſars had 'defeated another of the Pruſſians, and carry'd off a Sum of 'Money which they were carrying to one of the Quarters 'of the Pruſſian Army. As to Jablunka, all our Accounts 'about it are ſo confus'd that we don't know what to think 'of the Matter: Letters from Berlin do not plainly tell us 'that the Town is taken: Thoſe from the Frontiers of 'Sileſia only mark that there has been an Action near 'Jablunka. Our Letters from Moravia increaſe the Uncertianty; for they tell us that the Paſs leading to that Place 'is ſtill guarded by a Detachment of Auſtrian Troops.

Letter from Berlin, March 7, N. S.

'We have receiv'd from Sileſia the News of three Ren'countres in that Province, the firſt was between a Squa'dron of Dragoons of the Regiment of Schulenberg, and a 'Detachment of Auſtrian Huſſars; the Second between a 'Battalion of Pruſian Grenadiers and a Detachment of the 'Queen of Hungary's Troops; and the Third between the 'Huſſars of both Sides. In the firſt the Auſtrian Huſſars 'were routed and fled beyond the River Neiſs, having had 'but two Men kill'd and ſeveral wounded. The ſecond 'Action was more bloody; it is even ſaid that the Pruſſian 'Grenadiers loſt Part of their Baggage. The Third was 'likewiſe pretty ſharp, but we have a poſitive Account that 'the Auſtrians had notthe Advantage, as is reported.

'The Marquis de Villeroy, Miniſter from the King of 'France, receiv'd a Courier from Paris a few Days ago. It 'is ſaid the Diſpatches he brought are very important, be'cauſe the Marquis is gone to Sileſia to communicate them 'to the King.

Some Advices from Sileſia, by the Way of Hamburg, ſay that the Pruſſians have began to batter the Town of Glogau.

March 10. Letters from Weiſſemberg in Moravia, give Account of the gallant Behaviour of a Lieutenant of Huſſars in the Auſtrian Service, who, with forty Men, fell into an Ambuſcade of four hundred Pruſſians, and were ſurrounded by them; but this determin'd Officer after having encouraged his little Troop, fell upon the Pruſſians, Sabre in Hand, kill'd and wounded ſeveral of them, and open'd a Paſſage for his People without the Loſs of one Man.

A private Letter from Paris aſſures, that the Works at Dunkirk are ſecretly carrying on: That there is a talk there of forming a Squadron of Obſervation of four Men of War equipp'd at Rochefort, and ſix at Breſt, which are to join eight of the Eaſt-India Company's Ships, converted into Men of War; and that a great Quantity of Proviſions are ſent from all the French Ports for the Squadron in America.

Francfort, March 2. There is no certain Time yet agreed upon for the Choice of an Emperor. The Electors of Mentz and Triers are of Opinion that this important Buſineſs cannot be diſpatch'd too ſpeedily, and the Grand Duke of Tuſcany has declar'd himſelf of the ſame Sentiments. On the other hand, the Electors of Cologn, Bavaria, Palatine, and the Kings of Poland and Pruſſia, think, that as the Empire is at preſent divided in many ſeparate Intereſts, it would be better for a while to defer the Time of Election, which might poſſibly give an Opportunity of reconciling thoſe Intereſts, and of cauſing the Choice to be made with more Unanimity. The King of Great-Britain has not yet declar'd himſelf upon this Subject. The Elector of Bavaria has acquainted the Magiſtracy of this City, that he is reſolv'd in Perſon to aſſiſt at the Diet of Election; at which the Electers of Cologn, Mentz, and Triers, are alſo expected.

WILLIAMSBURG, May 1.

Capt. Cutler, who ſail'd out of Virginia, laſt December, with a Load of Wheat and Indian Corn, deſign'd for Boſton, was, by contrary Winds and bad Weather, drove ſo far out of his Courſe, that he went to Madeira; from whence he writes to a Correſpondent here, dated Feb. 13. That he came to a prodigious Market when he arriv'd at that Iſland, which was about the Middle of January, the Inhabitants al-being moſt ſtarv'd for want of Proviſion, having receiv'd no Supplies for ſome Time before; that aſſoon as he got aſhore, he was carry'd about the Town, ty'd to a Croſs, as they carry the Image of our Saviour on Feſtival Days, with Ten Thouſand Fryars and Boys, whooping and hallowing with Joy; inſomuch, that he was as deaf with their Noiſe, as if he had been on board a Bomb Veſſel in a Siege. He ſold his Wheat at Nine Shillings per Buſhel, and Indian Corn at Six Shillings and Three pence.

BOSTON, May 18.

By the Maſter of a Veſſel which ariv'd here laſt Wedneſday in 30 Days from Gibraltar, we are inform'd, That 19 Sail of French Men of War were arriv'd at Toulon and Breſt from the Weſt-Indies; the Reaſon of their Return, they give out, to be for want of Proviſions; That Commodore Martin, with his Squadron, is cruiſing upon the Coaſt of Spain; and that Two of our Men of War had taken two large Dutch Ships near the Streights of Gibraltar, one of them a Fly-Boat of about 300 Tuns, from Port Rico for Cadiz loaded with Tobacco, Cocoa and other Spaniſh Goods; the other a Ship of 24 Guns, from Cadiz, bound to the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies, having on board 1600 Barrels of Flower, and other Stores, for the Spaniſh Forces. Both Veſſels were carried into beſides, (as 'tis ſaid) ſome Braſs Cannon and Ammunition for the Spaniſh Forces. Both Veſſels were carried into Gibraltar.

NEW-YORK, May 25.

Mr. William Pitts of Bermuda, a Priſoner on board the St. John Privateer Sloop, in Company with the three Privateers from the Havanna, ſail'd the 4th of April, 1741, one Snow of 28 Guns 130 Men, one Scooner of 20 Guns, 90 Men, and the St. John Sloop of 16 Guns, 125 Men, one Capt. Lewis Commander, ſail'd for St. Auguſtine, in company with 5 Merchant Men laden with Proviſions; and the ſaid St. John Sloop ſail'd from St. Auguſtine the 14th of April, and the 6th of May took the Sloop Dolphin, Solomon Sturges and the 9th took the Ship Brumſdon, John Simpſon, from White Haven, the 10th took the Sloop Ranger, Iſaac Johnſon of Boſton, from Virginia, the 11th took the Ship America, Robert Kitchin, from Glaſcow and on the 13th took the Sloop Minion, of Boſton from N. Carolina: Which Capt. Lewis gave to the Engliſh Priſoners, being 43 in Number, after plundering ſaid Sloop, and took out of her 105 barrels of Turpentine, Pitch, Tarr and all his Stores; we parted with the St. John Privateer the ſame Day in the Lat. 38, Long. 72. when the Privateer ſtear'd her Courſe S. S. W. with Capt. Kitchin's Ship.

The other three Privateers are ſtill on the Coaſt, viz. Two Sloops and a Snow, and to be ſure the Scooner is not far off; what Succeſs they have had ſince theſe Priſoners left them, is uncertain. But on Saturday laſt, by a Gentleman at Rockway on Long-Iſland, we are informed, That two Sloops and a Snow (which we may ſuppoſe to be theſe Privateers) were ſeen off that Place, ſtanding backward and forward between that Place and the Hook. And we are informed, that the two Sloops are poorly Mann'd, but the Snow is tolerably well fitted, and has upwards of one hundred Men on boa'd.

We hear, that there are fourteen Men of War at the Havannah, and that they have lately erected ſeveral new Fortifications at that Place, and that they are daily in expectation of a viſit by Admiral VERNON. We alſo are informed, that Proviſions are very dear and ſcarce at the Havannah.

We are now fitting out here at New-York by Subſcription, two good Sloops (Privateers) to look after theſe Spaniards. The Aſſembly being now ſitting, have voted four hundred Pounds towards the Charge of theſe two Sloops; they have likewiſe voted, that every Man that ſhall happen to loſe a Leg or an Arm, or be otherwiſe diſabled on this Occaſion, ſhall have Fifty Pounds; and we hear, that by Act of Parliament our Privateers are to be paid Five Pounds Sterling per Head, which is to be paid without any delay, for every one on board a Spaniſh Privateer. It is to be hop'd, theſe two Sloops will give a good Account of the Dons. We are now beating up for Volunteers, and it is to be wiſh'd, that every one who has the Intereſt of the Province at heart, and the Proſperity of its Trade, will lend a helping hand, and contribute (in his Way) to ſo good a Deſign.

PHILADELPHIA.

Sunday laſt arrived here the little Sloop Victory, Capt. Sibbald, being the ſame that Capt. Drummond took from the Spaniards, and made a Tender of, with 2 Carriage Guns, 4 Swivels, and 30 Men. When ſhe was in Jamaica, the Men were all preſs'd out of her but 6 or 7; and in her Paſſage here, on Friday the 15th Inſtant, they met with a Ship and Sloop, which ſuddenly hoiſting Spaniſh Colours, call'd to the Victory to ſtrike to the King of Spain; but ſhe ran in between them both, gave each a Broadſide, and divided her few ſmall Shot equally between them; which began an Engagement that laſted 5 Glaſſes. The Victory received two Shot in the Hull, one between Wind and Water, three thro' the Counter, two thro' the Cabin, one came into the Gun Room and lodg'd in the Pump; and her Flying-Jib-Halliards were twice ſhot away during the Fight: At length the Sloop bore down upon the Victory, in order to board her; as ſhe came near, Capt. Sibbald was preparing to fire one of the Carriage Guns into her; but perceiving he ſhould not have time, he catch'd up his Musket and ſhot down the Spaniard that was at Helm, and no-body ſupplyingthe Place for ſome Minutes, the Sloop ſhiver'd up in the Wind, and receiving at the ſame time a warm Salute from the Victory, ſhe thought proper to bear away to the Ship: The Ship fir'd two Shot afterwards, one of which lodg'd in the Maſt, the other paſs'd between two of the Men, took the Side of the Canoo, and cut the Tackle-fall in three Places. Then the Ship and Sloop went away together, and left the Victory to purſue her Voyage. James Pearel was ſhot in the Thigh, and died 7 Days after the Engagement. Robert Wood had a Piece of the Crown of his Hat taken out by a Shot which ſtun'd him, as he was charging one of the Swivels, but he preſently recover'd, and went on with his Buſineſs. During the whole Fight the Spaniards behaved in a very cowardly manner, and the Men are all of Opinion, that if they had had but ten Hands more, they could have taken them both.

We hear that a handſome Preſent will be made theſe brave Fellows by the Owners of the George, for their gallant Behaviour.----The Ship had 12 Carriage Guns.
